CLASS HISTORY

On a crisp fall morning in 1936 nine of today's seniors, namely: Dorothy Aldrich, Mary Banner, Rosemary Batt, Bob Cornue, Hollis Edinger, Joe Flaherty, Audrey Morse, Richard Raut and Margie Towne, stepped wide-eyed into the kindergarten. They soon were well established under the supervision of Miss Carlton and so started the long-remembered schooldays. Under the guiding hands of Miss Palin, Miss Baldwin, Miss Sloan, Miss Dwyer and Miss Long, they maneuvered through the grades adding to the class a few new faces here and there.

Junior High School proved to be a strange new adventure but we soon found ourselves well established. Ninth grade with Mrs. Porter as our adviser ended our Junior High School and with big ideas we became Sophomores under the supervision of Mr. Owens and Mrs. Sherman. We elected Hollis Edinger as president.

In our Junior year, we chose Hollis Edinger again as president and our advisers were Miss Murphy and Miss Goff. The main activities of the year were the Magazine contest and the Oracle. The Junior Prom ended our Junior events and it's "Summer Fantasy" provided the theme for a gala occasion.

This year under the guidance of Mrs. Austin, Mr. Millis and Mr. Allen as our advisers, we elected these officers for the year:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| President | Frances Smith | Secretary | Audrey Morse |
| Vice-President | Robert Butler | Treasurer | Francis Fitzpatrick |

Highlights of the year were: The Senior Ball, January 28, where the music of the Ohioans and the Fiesta decorations provided the setting for dancing.

The New York trip over Memorial Day provided five days of sight seeing and entertainment as a climax of the year's activities.

In addition to several square dances and paper drives, the class sponsored a Carl and Jane amateur show. In March a Donkey Basketball game was held between the Faculty of Tully Central and the Business men of Tully. This proved to be a hilarious event. As a result of these various activities, our class earned over $1300.

Scholastic honors of the class go to Audrey Morse, Valedictorian, and Ronald Rice, Salutatorian.

With our schooldays behind us as only a few steps in the tall ladder of life, we leave T. C. S. with fond remembrances of cherished friends and wonderful times found here in the security of her walls. We bid farewell, but not without a last reluctant glimpse of schooldays, as we move forward to accept our challenge as citizens of tomorrow's world, remembering as we go our class motto: "Not at the top, but climbing."

CLASS PROPHECY OF '49

The other day I said to Mart, "Let's go on a nice long trip?"

Mart said, "O. K., let's go see the old gang?" We'll take Jean Whittemore to cook for us."

Our first stop was at Apulia Station. We stopped to get supplies at Bob Porter's store. Mary Banner "Beaner" lets us in on a little family secret. Bob lets "Beaner" take care of the gas pump while he takes care of the store. The reason: he sells only gas.

We are near the little old school house when we hear an awful shriek. Mart runs in. Just then we hear, "Robert, quit throwing those spitballs! Jimmy, give me that rubber band" Mart waves us in and we see Audrey Kehrer in no other role but teacher!

Look at this, a new nursery. Read the sign, says Mart. "Apulia Nursery . . . George Kelley, Proprietor . . . Ours is the noisiest business in town." He ought to be happy enough. Dorothy Aldrich is his best customer and Lucy Lasda and Jean Whittemore help out greatly."

"Did you know that 'Bull' Butler built this road? asked Mart. He had it all straightened and the hills taken out so that he could travel faster from here to Jamesville. You see he just had to get to see Pat faster.

We practically flew to Tully because we had a lot of people to see and not much time to do it.

"Look at the new school." "Oh, that's where Dot Aldrich's kids all go." As we entered the front door we heard Dot as she finished counting noses. You get the connection between the new school and George Kelley's business now?

Lloyd Compton owns the bakery now. We find him sitting on his favorite garden tractor. Instead of using trucks to deliver goods, Lloyd uses garden tractors.

There is a new state hospital on Clinton Street for the mentally unbalanced. There are a few of the Senior Class boarding there. As we enter we see John O'Connor in a Napoleon suit, the leader of a growing army. Audrey Morse is the head nurse here. "Budge" was transferred here and Audrey, of course, put in her claim.

Well, well, Varsity Smith has at last made the Varsity and in the 9th grade too!

We meet Blanche Rainbow in her mansion on Dutch Hill having her dinner in bed. She married a millionaire, Carl Compton, who inherited his fortune from his Uncle Chauncey Pigeontoes.

Skateland is now a partnership business. The partners are Dick Raut, Millie Folsom and Margie Towne. By the way, Don Stout, Jake Banner and Nancy Hillenbrand seem to be their best customers.

"The Second Story Club," is what the sign says next to Skateland. Rosemary was so fascinated by the night clubs in New York that she started one herself.

The road that way is the best . . . or so says Bob Cornue. We overtake him on his "putt-putt bike" heading in that direction. You have a long way to go Bob, you shouldn't have stopped at Henderson's!

Look at that sign, it says "Old Man Mose II, alias Bob Drumm, KEEP OUT." Just to enlighten your minds, we found that Bob has sworn off women and now lives in a nice big cave by himself.

We pick up an old hitchhiker carrying carpenter supplies. Why it's Dick Henderson and is he happy. He's got his first job in the field of architecture—building shed out back—if you get what we mean.

I don't know how Myrtle Dickenson got on North Street but there she is. Bob Coffin, our buddy until the Senior Year, always thought she would make a good wife because she is so quiet.

In LaFayette we notice that the flag is at half mast. We find out why when we pass the cemetery and staring us right in the face is Hollis Edinger's epitaph. "Oh, look at those beautiful "Rosies" on his grave," exclaimed Jean.

We meet Arthur Banner up the street but he can't stop to chat long. He is on his way to Navarino. Art has taken up where Charles Atlas left off.

Frances Smith has moved to LaFayette now; Jug got a new job there. We find out that her hobby is collecting jugs. She has been collecting them for a "LONG" time.

The circus comes to town! Oh, there's a poster! It pictures Ronnie Rice in a leopard skin claiming the title of the strongest man in the world. The poster next to it shows Joe Flaherty as the world's best clown, so says Dingling Brothers Circus. Joe is never on time for his act—says he is catching up on his sleep. Dingling Brothers also has Frances Fitzpatrick in it's hire. He takes on all comers for three rounds. Poor Fitz, the future looks pretty black for him—no comers.

Jean is still trying to get her driver's license so we stopped at the Court House. Here we find Mart Sills, the Judge. He is starting to enforce the Anti-Necking bill he passed. Dick Raut, beware of the long arm of the law.

Now we are on the way to Fabius. There is "Mike" Cook running the tractor for the buzz saw. Lucy is a pretty good worker too. She runs the buzz saw while Junior runs the tractor.

Last stop at Fabius is the bowling alley, Merton Sills is still trying for the 100 mark. Keep trying Mert, one of these days you will get a strike.

Say, does anyone know where there is a good hideout for us? These Seniors are merciless! OUCH!

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1949, Tully Central School, County of Onondaga, State of New York being of sound mind and body, hereby publish our last will and testament:

First to our Principal, Mr. Green, and the faculty we leave our sincere gratitude for their patience and understanding through our years spent in T. C. S.

Next to Mrs. Austin, Mr. Millis and Mr. Allen we leave our deepest appreciation for their help and guidance in making our Senior year a success.

To the Freshman Class, we leave a book entitled "How to Become Successful Seniors." With three years to practice in you should be even better than we are.

To the Sophomores we leave our ability to be quiet and sedate at all times. Calm down kiddies!

The following bequests, because we can no longer keep them, we hope you, Juniors will accept as a token of our generosity and thoughtfulness.

Blanche Rainbow leaves half of her boy friends to Thelma Johnson and Ellen Root. She decided to keep the other ten. If you don't care to hang on to any certain one, take Blanche's advice girls, "Love 'em and leave 'em."

Hollis Edinger would like to leave his ability to play basketball to his brother Stanley. This will make the girls come running, Stan.

Lucie Lasda wills to Barb Carlton her engagement ring. May you realize the importance of true love, Barb.

To Dorothy Fisher, John O'Connor leaves his "during school" appetite. It's more fun dashing to the locker between periods, and Johnny guarantees it will give you a more BROADENING view.

Lloyd Compton bequeaths his job at the bakery to Shirley Austin. Then you'll really he rolling in the dough, Shirley.

Myrtle Dickinson forfeits her ability to take things easy to Jane Baker and Ida Hobart. Myrtle finds that life is too short to hurry.

Our T. C. S. Casanova Francis Fitzpatrick leaves to Jack Sherman and Paul Hallinan his glamour girls. It's about time you boys found a heart interest.

It is after much debate and great sacrifice that Jean Whittemore has decided to will Ralph Banner to Nancy Hillenbrand. After all, Richard will be gone too and someone will have to keep track of him.

Audrey Kehrer leaves to Marriette Rindge her will power to stay in nights. It helps your marks, Etta.

Art Banner gives his truck to Ronald Rycraft. He doubts if it would take you out of the state Ronnie, but he is sure it would take you down on the lake road DALEY.

To Leonard Seeley, Richard Henderson leaves his height. They say good things come in small packages but Richard says it's nice to be looked up to.

Ronnie Rice leaves his position on the football team and his appetite to Robert Root. You know, Bob it takes food to build a strong body.

Audrey Morse leaves to Connie Daley her faith in the U .S. Navy. Audrey's motto is "Semper Fidelis" (always faithful).

To Don Coon, Bob Drumm wills his ability to tell "tall tales" and his corny jokes. Everybody appreciates a little humor now and then so keep trying Don.

Frances Smith leaves her ability to keep the interest of a certain person to Donna Aungier. What's the matter Donna you don't seem very enthusiastic?

Bob Butler bequeaths his fond affection toward girls to Dick Herold and Bill Beardsley. They won't bite, and remember be sweet to 'em. At least that's what Bob says.

Margie Towne leave Jimmy Finlon, her roller skates. Now you can whiz through the chores on the farm in no time Jim, but be careful not to scare the cows.

Dorothy Aldrich leaves her position in the Cafeteria to Ermyntrude Shute. This is just in case you were wondering what to do with your spare time, Trudy.

Richard Raut leaves Nancy to Bill Youngblood. We know you hate to do this Richard but Nancy will be lost without you around.

Bob Cornue leaves to Bob Brown his "scooter," so he will be able to make better time between his house and Ushers.

To Joan Fox and Rita Gorny, George Kelley wills his speaking ability and scientific mind. Who knows girls some day you might be famous.

Joe Flaherty leaves his habit of arriving at school bright and early every morning to Barbara Rice. As Joe says, "Better late than never."

Paul Smith leaves his father's car to Donna Bardwell and Alice Smith. Stand back everybody here they come. Crash! Bang! The girls said that a telephone pole just seemed to pop up out of nowhere.

Rosemary Batt leaves her position as baby sitter to D'ck Hill and Ralph Banner. Are you contemplating matrimony? You might just as well get in practice boys.

To Barbara Ritch, Mary Banner wills her cute giggle and temper. That saying about being seen and not heard is all right sometimes, but not all the time. We'd like to know you're around, Barb.

Millie Folsom leaves her vim, vigor and vitality to Pat Covey. You'll need these attributes, Pat, if you plan to keep up with those Fabius fellows.

Merton and Martin Sills leave their quiet manner and ability to mind their own business to Bill Bailey. You will find that girls prefer the strong silent type Bill.

To Catherine Foley, Carl Compton leaves his gun that he uses for hunting woodchucks. With the Nash and Carl's gun, you should capture bigger and better bait, Catherine!

In witness thereof, we hereto subscribe our name and affix our seal, this 13th day of April, 1949.

We, the class of 1950 under the able direction of Mrs. Buzard and Mr. Lawson have just completed our third year in high school. As this school year comes to a close, we look back to the beginning of the year when we were busy with our magazine sale. Our class of thirty-five were split up into two groups; the REDS and the BLUES. Together these groups sold $1,058 worth of magazines. This was a record amount ever sold by any Junior Class in the history of the school. William Youngblood was the high salesman for the class by selling over $100 in subscriptions. All totaled this netted over $400 for the class treasury.

November 10 and February 18 proved successful for our class. We had round and square dances which also added to our fund.

A candy sale was the hi-light of March 24. This kind of a sale has not been held for quite a few years and the results strengthened the treasury by $11.

At the time this Oracle was on the press, we were planning our Annual Junior Prom to be held June 27 in the gymnasium. The music will be furnished by Jack Kreischer and his orchestra.

Fifteen new members were admitted to the Pen and Ink Club last fall. The Club is an honorary society and only high school students with an English average of 85 per cent are admitted. The initiation was held in December 1948 preceded by a formal dinner.

The organization was divided into two staffs again this year with each of the two assistant editors Jane Baker and Robert Cornue, the head of each staff. Each staff published the "High Times" on alternate weeks.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Buzard, the Pen and Ink Club this year has brought the sports, activity, and grade news as well as the latest gossip to the readers of the Tully Times.

The T. C. S. Student Council was completely reorganized this year, increasing its membership to 27 under a plan equalizing homeroom representation by grades. All members participated in a training course in Parliamentary Procedure and Leadership conducted by Mr. Pearse, the group adviser. Weekly meetings were held, open to visitors.

Officers for the year were: President, Robert Cornue; Vice-President, Francis Fitzpatrick; Secretary, Donna Bardwell; Treasurer, William Youngblood.

With a Charter of Authority granted by the Board of Education, the Council organized permanent active committees, such as: Ways and Means, All-School Service, Rules, Publicity, Friendship, Safety, Corridor, Athletic and Recreation. Some of its accomplishments were: financial support of most school activity clubs, bus privileges for out-of-town basketball games, marshal help at games, sponsorship of the Red Cross drive and Class Day Song Contests, providing dance music for noon-hour recreation, adoption of a point system for earning awards through school service, and a P. T. A. demonstration of student government in operation.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Austin twenty-seven members of Tulcendra met last fall and elected the following officers:

|---|---|
| President | Audrey Morse |
| Vice-President | Mary Banner |
| Secretary-Treasurer | Marguerite Towne |
| Historian | Frances Smith |

Soon after the organization meeting, try-outs were held and thirty-two people were admitted to the club. During the year, meetings have been held at which time these new members studied make-up and stage technique. They have assisted throughout the year with grade programs and community entertainments. The club ably managed the make-up and lighting for a minstrel show sponsored by the Melody Men.

In the spring, efforts were concentrated on the production of the three act comedy "Youth Takes Over." Every member of the club played an active part in making the play a success. With the proceeds from the play, Tulcendra plans to purchase an exterior back drop for the stage.

The formal initiation will be held in June, followed by the annual picnic.

"Youth Takes Over," a three-act comedy by Smith and Finch, was presented June 3 and 4, under the direction of Mrs. Austin. This play, which depicted the problems of life, love and the pursuit of a high school education, was one of the most hilarious comedies that the club has ever presented. Every member of this unusually large cast enacted his part well, and everyone in Tulcendra had some part in the production.

LOCKE MEMORIAL SPEAKING CONTEST

This sophomore contest has been established in memory of a former Tully faculty member, Edward B. Locke, who gave his life for his country in World War II. The prizes are furnished by his mother, Mrs. Iva Locke.

This activity was held February 18, and real talent was displayed by all of the contestants this year, as they presented dramatic sketches which included a number of characters. Mrs. Austin coached the contestants and Mrs. Richards acted as judge. First prizes were awarded to Sharon Herlihy and Warren Woods, and second to Janet Usher and Dick Green.

JUNIOR-SENIOR SPEECH TOURNAMENT

Tully's Thirteenth Annual Junior-Senior speaking contest was held Monday Evening, March 28. This activity is a natural outgrowth of an original composition unit based on individual research in our school library. All of the contestants gave commendable presentations of their speeches. Audrey Morse and Robert Cornue won the first prizes, and Barbara Carlton and Ronald Rice received the second awards.

Mrs. Caroline Lonsdale, of Syracuse, judged the contest, and the prizes were furnished by the Tully Branch of the Syracuse Trust Company and the Tully Lumber and Coal Company. The contestants were coached by Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Sherman and Mr. Millis.

With the adding of fifteen new members this year, Radio Club swelled to a total of twenty-seven. The initiation supper and entertainment was one of the major highlights of the fall season.

One of the first major items of business, was the election of officers. They were chosen as follows:

|---|---|
| President | Francis Fitzpatrick |
| Vice-President | Donna Aungier |
| Secretary-Treasurer | Blanche Rainbow |
| Sponsor | Mr. Millis |

Following lessons in microphone technique and handling of the public address equipment, the groups organized into three committees. Each was to be responsible for one assembly program. A news program was the first to be presented, followed by a New Year's Resolution show and finally we brought a real radio quiz program to Tully, which was broadcast by the Rural Radio Network at a later date. It was a season of learning and fun.

PROJECTIONIST CLUB

This club has been limited to boys of the Senior High school and its purpose is service to the school in the visual aids program.

Fifteen new members were added to the three projectionists of last year. Because of size, the group was divided in two for purposes of instruction.

We learned how to operate and care for the school movie projectors, the slide machine, film strip and opaque projectors as well as the new school wire recorder. The club was called on frequently to supply operators for educational films.

No officers were chosen and Mr. Millis was our sponsor.

Early in the spring our chapter planned its Annual Father and Son Banquet which is usually the highlight of the year for the Future Farmer group. Following was a movie and a prominent guest speaker. This year our seed sales greatly exceed our $1,000 goal. At the present setup the club keeps the sales competitive by awarding $5 to the member getting the highest number of sales and $2 to the member getting the highest number of individual orders.

This year, as a continued conservation project, we planted trees. Our sales this year have been great from pencils, popcorn and seeds. This year one boy will be sent to participate in the F F A speaking contest with hopes of reaching Kansas City, Missouri. At the annual National F F A convention our chapter will be represented by one or two boys sponsored by the F F A of Tully Central School.

Our membership this year consists of 14 old members and 7 new members. Many of the boys attended Cornell Farm and Home Week at Ithaca. Our new members were initiated in full form according to the official ritual of the National Organization.

This year we are happy that we have been able to begin to attain the goal for which we have been striving for three years for a larger, more complete organization. We now have a membership of 35 and may very possibly have nearly 40 before the year is finished.

Among our activities for 1948-1949 have been: playing for one football game and the Republican Rally in the fall, for several student assemblies, for the Magician Show sponsored by the Tully Hose Company Women's Auxiliary for the benefit of the band, for the Junior-Senior Speaking Contest, the Memorial Day Services, and graduation as usual, our most important appearances came in the Spring with the County and State Festivals and the Spring Concert. This year has been our first to participate in the County Festival which was held at the Fine Arts College at Syracuse University. This has been our second year at entering the competition at the State Contest and Festival held at Cortland State Teachers College.

The year was climaxed by the Spring Concert of the Music Department held in May. We look forward to another enjoyable and successful year in Music next year.

We have had many fine musical experiences in the T. C. S. Glee Club this year as compared with the past two years. They have been new and invigorating.

Our first public appearance of the year was in February when we sang a number for the P. T. A. activity night at T. C. S. Our next was our first participation in the County Festival held April 8 at Crouse College at Syracuse University. Our last trip came in May on the 20th when we traveled to Cortland to the State Teachers College and entered, for the first time, the State Sectional Contest and Festival. Both experiences were extremely interesting and broadening. Many other organizations were heard over the County and State.

As in the case of the band, our year was climaxed, of course, by our presentation of the Spring Concert in May. We look forward to the continuance of our new experiences in 1949-50.

The 1948 football campaign was very successful as the team won four games, lost one and tied one. The season opened at Fabius where the team was held to a 20-20 deadlock. Then the team traveled to Manlius where they defeated a strong team 20-19. Ronnie Rice, making two touchdowns, was injured and could not play the rest of the season. The team then played host to Minoa on a wet and rainy day and were defeated 49-14. Then we traveled to LaFayette, where we won easily 33-20 and then in the same week defeated a stubborn Onondaga Central team 23-12. The next week Jamesville came to town and the team climaxed a highly successful season by piling up a score of 39-6.

We congratulate Coach Poradosky and his team for a very good season, and wish them the best of luck next year.

Coach Poradosky started the 1948-49 basketball campaign with only four returning lettermen from last season. Around these men he built a team which had its ups and downs but wound up in a tie for second place in the play-offs.

Hollis Edinger led the scorers with 107 points and was elected to the league's all-star team. The hoopsters won five games and lost five in league play. The play-offs were played at the Coliseum this year and the Tullyites were eliminated by a strong Jamesville quintet in a hard fought battle, 38-36. This ended a highly successful season and coach and his boys deserve much praise for a fine record. The following are the scores of this year's games:

This year instead of selecting eight Cheerleaders it was decided to set up a rotation system whereby the vacancies on the squad would be filled without having a whole new squad. The four girls left from last year took over for football season, and became the Varsity Cheerleaders.

All the candidates for the four remaining positions on the squad were put through a four weeks' training period. Each girl had to make up a new cheer which she presented on the day of judgment. The judges (faculty members) selected four girls from thirty candidates to become the Junior-Varsity Cheerleaders for the year.

Probably the biggest and most thrilling experience of the year for the Cheerleaders was to be able to cheer at the play-off game at the Coliseum.
